09/107 - OTHER MATTERS

- Councillor June Collier reported that she had received a letter from two pupils at Tackley Primary School who have completed a litter collection. They wrote to request that a litter bin be sited between the school entrance at St. John's Road and the entrance by the Hard Play Area. Clerk to contact West Oxfordshire District Council regarding the possibility of a recycling style bin being sited and emptied between these two entrances. Councillor June Collier to invite the children to attend the Parish Council meeting on 26th January 2010.
- The letter relating to the condition of the lane next to 30 Nethercote Road has been forwarded to Cottsway Housing for action.
- Sleeping Policemen require white markings. As the Annual Inspection is due Councillor June Collier will discuss with Willermites.
- Bus Stops - Work to commence on 4th January 2010, starting at the Rousham Road stop and working down towards the Village Green and then Sturdy's Castle. Oxfordshire County Council will write to residents who may be affected by the work.
- There will be no further surgeries until 5th January 2010.
