Mr. Clow, the Treasurer, gave account balances: Current account £221 credit, Building Fund £852 credit and Sinking Fund £3,951 credit.

Before the next meeting Mr. Clow is to send round proposals for increased hiring tariff to be implemented in 1999 so that Committee Members may consider these.

CORRESPONDENCE:

Mrs. Thompson had received a copy of a letter sent by Mr. Ashley to the Parish Council in which he asked about the possibility of some shelter being provided for spectators at football and cricket matches. A reply is to be sent to Mr. Ashley saying that the Village Hall Committee is not averse to some form of protection being attached to the Hall but feel that it would be up to the Football and Cricket clubs to provide same.

A letter has been received from Enstone Young Farmers Club re booking the Hall on 30th October. Mr. Clow is to respond to this.

A letter is to be sent to Mrs. A. Shukman thanking her for her £5 donation for Gala Day and a letter is also to be sent to Sturdy's Castle thanking them for their £50 donation.

FUND RAISING:

GALA DAY: Mr. Clow provided a breakdown of income/expenditure for Gala Day which showed a total profit of £763.34, £2 up on last year. He also provided a list of raffle prize winners. Mrs. Thompson is to put a letter in the Tackley Newsletter thanking everyone who helped at Gala Day.

QUIZ NIGHT: This is to be on Saturday, 7th November, 1998, doors opening at 7 pm for a 7.30 start.

Mrs. Bishop is to do posters to advertise this event and Mrs. Thompson is to contact Sturdy's Castle to ask them to do the bar from 7 pm to 11 pm. A note is also to be put in Newsletter re Quiz. Mrs. Thompson will organise bread rolls for sale on the evening.

ANY OTHER BUSINESS:

The Brownies and Guides have until recently always shared one booking on a Monday evening, paying only one fee between them. The Brownies have now changed their booking to Tuesday and it was agreed that the Brownies and Guides now be charged for two sessions, i.e. one fee each.

There being no other business the meeting closed at 8.38 pm.

Date of next meeting: Tuesday, 27th October, 1998.
