DECORATION OF THE HALL:

The staircase leading to the committee room is to be decorated the week commencing 2nd October.

Estimates for the main hall decoration are still being looked into, with a new quote by a Mr Tolley, which was in comparison to Mr Blackmans. Mr Tolley suggested putting a new piece of wood over existing Daidoh to avoid burning off old paint.

A decision on colours for the main hall and to proceed with the work was postponed until Mrs. Northwood could attend a meeting to give her views, as the idea to redecorate the hall was originally Mrs Northwoods. The next meeting will be Monday 30th October, where it is hoped Mrs Northwood will attend so the matter can be concluded.

Mr. Clow, the treasurer, told the committee that there would be sufficient funds to pay for the decoration once the quarterly bills had been paid.

ACCOUNTS:

Mr. Clow gave details of the balances of the various accounts as follows:

Treasurer's Account:	£ 200.00
Sinking Fund:	£5,662.83
Building Fund:	£ 877.99

We are owed three months rental fees, for which the accounts will be sent out and these amount to between £600 and £800.

Mr. Clow has asked the Clerk of the Parish Council to check the length of the lease, and also to check the minimum amount needed in the Sinking Fund, which the clerk has agreed to do.
